

I do not want the FCC to lessen the protection of the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law. Before this law took place, we were receiving 8-10 calls daily, all from telemarketers. Most of the calls took place between 6:00pm-9:00pm. Now we have none and that is the way I would like it to stay. This is nothing more than an invasion of my family's privacy and onced stopped, should not be allowed to restart. I can see no justification the FCC could use to lessen Indiana's law. Thank you!
Please do nothing that would
